Cherry Blossom Festival in Vancouver

Each year, Vancouver leaps into spring with the annual Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival (VCBF), a celebration of the city's 37,000 blooming cherry trees. With plenty of fun and free events - including musical performances, artist demonstrations, guided walks, bike tours and more - the seventh annual VCBF promises to be bigger and better than ever. On April 14, the festival's newest event, the Cherry Blossom Umbrella Dance, will see hundreds of pink umbrellas descend upon the Vancouver Art Gallery for a flash mob choreographed by dance superstar Shiamak Davar.
