

5 Things to Know in Vancouver for Thursday, April 2

5 THINGS TO KNOW

6

5

11

0

CTV Vancouver

Published Thursday, April 2, 2015 8:08AM PDT

Last Updated Thursday, April 2, 2015 8:10AM PDT

1. Daniel Alphonse Paul was arrested by police Wednesday evening. Police had earlier appealed for information on his whereabouts as they looked to question him about the death of his girlfriend Rose Paul.
2. A high school student has tested positive for measles in Burnaby. This is the third case in a week, with two other students testing positive last week after returning from a trip to China.
3. Police and SWAT team members swarmed a suspected meth lab on Wednesday only to find... frog eggs. It's not easy being green.
4. A convicted murderer escaped from a minimum security prison in Mission. Shawn Merrick, 43, isn't the first one to escape from Mission Institution. Norman Riel fled in August 2014 and still hasn't surfaced.
5. In the mood to celebrate spring? The ninth annual Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival officially kicks-off a month-long celebration with the free Cherry Jam Downtown live concert. The event starts at 11:45 a.m. at the Burrard SkyTrain Station.